

Profile of Keynote speaker

Mr Singh is a Fellow of institution of Engineers. He is a B.Tech. in Civil Engineering) from KNIT, a Post Graduate in Project Planning and Infra-structure Management from University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, a MBA in (Human Resource Management) from Pondicherry Central University, Puducherry and has done a short term course on Seismic Risk in India from IIT, Kanpur.

In addition to the above he had been active participant in various engineering and management courses and project studies at Engg. Staff College of India, Hyderabad and National Insurance academy, Pune.

He has obtained a Post Graduate Diploma in Yoga Teaching also from Maharshi Dayanand Institute of Vocational Training.

He began his career as a Civil Engineer with LIC OF INDIA (a PSU under Ministry of Finance, Govt. of India) and during his tenure spanning about 35 years as Executive Engineer, Superintending Engineer, Dy. Chief Engineer, General Manager/DCE has lead projects of Office and residential buildings including large housing projects under LIC Policy Holder's Housing Schemes at Ahmedabad, Bhubaneswar, Bangaluru and Jaipur and finally his journey culminated on deputation as former HoD, Engineering,

LIC HFL Care Homes, Mumbai.

Now he is active in advisory roles of certain institutions, Cultural Associations, NGO-IFC (Innovation for Change).